CURRENT SERMON SERIES

Salvation Belongs to the Lord: An Introduction to our Current Sermon Series

By Pastor Tim Groos

I am so excited about this sermon series in Jonah. Jonah is one of the most well-known books in the Bible, and it's a favorite among Christians. It is one of those books that people of all ages enjoy over and over again. And so, no matter how you cut it, it is just good to be here, studying Jonah. But we are in Jonah because God wants to remind us that salvation belongs to Him. In Jonah 2:9, Jonah confesses from the belly of the fish: "Salvation belongs to the Lord!" He confesses it because, before his humiliating experience, Jonah thought "salvation belongs to me!" And that's often how it is with us: until God puts us deep down into the belly of some monstrous trial, we act like salvation belongs to us and our purposes. There is a phrase I would have you memorize over the next several weeks: Christianity is not what I make it; it is what Christ makes me! Knowing this and believing this is key to experiencing abundant life in Jesus Christ. †

THIS MONTH'S SCRIPTURES

10/12 - 10/13 Jonah 3
